

Accolades

Read what servicing company executives and participants have had to say about USFN's OnSite Training Program:

"Excellent personal interaction and real life examples of foreclosure processes made this very effective."

– IndyMac Bank, Austin, TX

"The title claims discussion was VERY informative."

– Litton Loan Servicing, Houston TX

"The OnSite gave more people a chance to attend. It was a big time-saver for those who still had work to do during the day, but were able to attend the training!"

– Countrywide Home Loans, Plano TX

"The open discussion and the packets provided with information covered during the training were both exceptional."

– Chase Home Finance, Columbus, OH

"I was very impressed by the complete and in-depth answers we received to our questions. The attorneys were very good about relating issues with examples."

– FANDO, Westlake, TX

Take Advantage of USFN's OnSite Training Program

When it comes to training, we wrote the book!

We've spent the past 20 years developing our unsurpassed and nationally recognized seminar program. A great deal of our success is the result of countless hours of discussion and evaluation with our industry advisory committees. Comprised of the country's leading servicers and legal counsel, they've helped us pinpoint topics that create the greatest challenges in servicing.

While education is widely believed to be a key factor in developing successful employees, adequate dollars are not always in the budget. USFN recognizes the need to bring the same high level of education to you that you've enjoyed at our popular regional & national seminars. To that end, we are committed to making our educational programs accessible to all servicers, and have been since 1997.

Whether we're training 20 people or 200, our OnSite Training Program is completely free of charge to your company!

Choose Your Format and Schedule

Training is typically conducted over the course of two days. The first day can consist of a casual afternoon meet and greet and/or reception, or in some cases, a half-day afternoon session(s) can precede the social event.

Depending upon the number of topics and firms chosen, training may be scheduled for an entire day with as many as 3 simultaneous tracks, or a half-day with just a handful of sessions. We work with you to select the best schedule and format, based upon your team's needs and the available meeting space.

Customize Your Content

Just as we've worked with our advisory committees, we will work with you to create unique sessions presented in an open and lively discussion format. This highly effective, results-driven setting provides you and your team with the tools to create best practices and enhance your overall process management – both internally and externally.

USFN's OnSite Training Program is customized to the level of experience of your staff and managers. We work with your team to develop sessions that will provide meaningful information that can be used immediately in the day-to-day work environment.

Select The Topics for Discussion

Mix & match from the topics below or develop your own as you identify needs:

- ▶ Title Curative
- ▶ Foreclosure, Bankruptcy, Eviction
- ▶ Managing the Business Partner Relationship
- ▶ Best Practices – Timeline/Case Management
- ▶ Disaster Aftermath – Moratoriums and Extensions
- ▶ Alternative Housing
- ▶ Second Liens
- ▶ Technology
- ▶ Post-Sale
- ▶ Hot Topics
- ▶ Short Sales & Other Loss Mit Strategies
- ▶ REO

...and much more – all at absolutely no cost to your company!

If there's a topic you'd like to cover but don't see listed, not a problem! We'll work with you to design the perfect session for your onsite seminar. Our skilled professionals can present their materials at a national/general level as well as local, state, and regional, and for all audiences from beginner to advanced.

Determine Your Intended Audience

We provide training for all levels of personnel in your organization. Whether it's a session for your newest team members, a roundtable with your in-house counsel, or a high-level discussion with senior management, we can customize your program for any audience.

Enjoy The Convenience

Our OnSite Training Program eliminates headaches associated with scheduling who can go offsite and who needs to stay in the office. With our program you can control which sessions your staff members attend and at what times, without loss of an entire day of productivity.

We Provide All Materials

Each attendee will receive a seminar booklet containing outlines on each session, along with handouts full of practical information they can refer to on a daily basis. Attendees also receive contact information for all speakers in the event they have follow up questions, or are interested in obtaining additional information on a particular topic.
